Re: Farmers Property and Casualty Insurance Company a/s/o Linda Senat v. Miele Inc.
Case No.: 1:22-cv-00383

Dear Judge Figueredo,

On behalf of defendant Miele, Inc., I write to request an adjournment of the settlement conference that is currently scheduled to commence before Your Honor on September 28, 2022 at 2:00 PM. Plaintiff's counsel has confirmed that he does not oppose this request. No prior requests for adjournment of the settlement conference have been made by either party.

Since the commencement of this action, the parties have been exchanging information informally, and in good faith, for purposes of facilitating evaluation and possible settlement of this matter. While the parties have made substantial progress in this regard, their exchange of information is not yet complete. Defendant has requested, and plaintiff's counsel is diligently working to collect, a few outstanding items needed to complete the evaluation process. The parties anticipate that they will be positioned to engage in settlement discussions by December 5, 2022.

An adjournment of the upcoming settlement conference would permit the exchange of information that would make the conference more fruitful. Accordingly, pursuant to Your Honor's Standing Order Applicable to Settlement Conferences, defendant respectfully requests an adjournment of the upcoming settlement conference by more than 45 days.

Very truly yours,

Benjamin D. Hartwell
